on Microsoft TEAMS <https://bit.ly/400lcvc>

9:30 – 10:00 A.M.

Presentation: Dr. Lauren Kennedy-Barrows, Ed.D, Manager, English Language Institute, University of Lethbridge (U of L)

Designing micro-credentials for Adult Learners: Insights into preferences and priorities

Our presenter, Dr. Lauren Kennedy-Barrows has over 20 years of experience in English language education as a teacher, trainer, and program administrator. Lauren earned her doctorate in international education and policy from the University of Toronto in October, 2024. Her research focused on micro-credentials, and she will share her findings with us. Micro-credentials are certifications that recognize specific skills or knowledge providing flexible ways for people to gain employment or continue their education.

10:00 – 11:00 A.M.

Organizational Updates

Purpose of LIN: For local service providers and organizations to connect, learn about each other's programs and services, and share information and resources.
